

In the Spotlight...

Our Mission – My philosophy as an attorney is to be aggressive and passionate in prosecuting the personal injury claims of my clients, and I take each case I handle personally and give each client the service and attention they deserve. You never have to worry about having your personal injury claim handled by an associate with lessor experience or a partner that does not specialize in personal injury cases. I handle your case from the beginning claims stage, through the litigation and, if necessary, to a jury verdict. I am available by telephone, text and email 24/7 so that my clients are never out of touch and can focus on the most important job of healing from their injury.

Our Background – I am an experienced personal injury lawyer advocating for injury victims in two states: Massachusetts and Texas. I have been practicing personal injury law since 1982. Because of my Texas background, I am the only personal injury attorney in the Berkshires with 35 years of experience in questioning jurors during jury selection (attorney questioning of jurors first started in Massachusetts in 2015). I represent personal injury clients from the initial claim stage through litigation until the matter is settled or a jury verdict is rendered.

I have won dozens of multi-million-dollar settlements and jury verdicts for my clients and their families. Cases include a woman blinded by a defective retractable dog leash, a worker who lost use of his hand while working on a printing press, the survivors of a victim of medical negligence, and an unfortunate victim of a collision with a company truck.

I represented the survivors of Ida Lee Delaney in Delaney v. City of Houston and the survivors of Byron Gillum in Gillum v. City of Houston. Both cases gained national attention and involved allegations of civil rights violations against the City's police force. I attained one of the highest settlements in history on behalf of a slip and fall victim in Brazoria County, Texas. I bring this expertise, passion and success to all my clients in Texas and in Massachusetts.

I am committed to my Berkshires community, serving on several non-profit boards in the past: The Eagle Fund, The Autism Treatment Center of America, Stanton Homes and am the co-founder and currently serve as Chairman of the Board of ExtraSpecialTeas, Inc. I am also in my second year as a board member of the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce.

Our Blueprint for Success – My success focuses on making certain my clients are well informed throughout the process so that they can make their own decisions regarding the value of their personal injury claims with my guidance. Here's what my clients have said in the past:

“Scott is an effective advocate for good engineering and against bad engineering practices. Very satisfying to work with him.”

– Don E. Bray

“Scott negotiated a settlement for me. I appreciated the terms of the settlement. Although I hope never to go through such an ordeal as a shattered elbow again, if such were to befall me, I'd call Scott right away.”

– Laurily Epstein

“Scott has a passion for justice. You won't be disappointed.”

– Rhonda Rice

“Scott Sanes is THE guy you want on your side.”
