

In the Spotlight...

Mission – Buying or selling a house can, undoubtedly, be stressful – but it doesn't have to be. Emily Zelenovic strives to eliminate much of the unnecessary stress by ensuring her clients fully understand each step of the process, are aware of any obstacles they may face, and are as prepared as possible to close on their home.

Background – Born and raised in Great Barrington, Emily moved back to her hometown in April 2017 after living and working in Boston for nine years. With the unwavering support of her husband and family, Emily decided to open her own law practice, focusing exclusively on real estate law. Her mentality was, and continues to be, do one thing and do it really well – and that is the foundation from which her practice has developed.

Blueprint for Success – Emily makes it a point to be actively involved in all aspects of her clients' real estate transactions, from start to finish. By being easily accessible to clients and their real estate agents - no matter the time or day - Emily is able to promptly address issues as they arise and ease specific concerns before they can escalate.
