Welcome to the Southern Berkshires!

There is a reason people are writing and talking about the Berkshires, and why people who live and work here are so passionate about and inspired by their community and surroundings.

Whether you like to ski, hike, bike, shop, dine, antique, stroll through charming downtowns, or hike to waterfalls, ours is a vibrant four-season community and vacation destination that offers something for everyone. But it's who we are that makes the Southern Berkshires a unique and special place to live and visit:

We Are an Arts Community: The Berkshires has long been known as a haven for artists seeking creative inspiration from the region's natural beauty and serenity. Today we are a community of working and highly-recognized artists and artisans – writers, photographers, painters, craftsmen, designers, filmmakers, actors, musicians, dancers... and a community that supports the Arts in all its forms. Our galleries, public spaces, arts festivals, museums, performance venues, and boutique retail shops offer unique opportunities for artists to showcase and sell their work, and for art lovers and patrons of the Arts to more intimately connect with artists and the Arts experience.

We are also home to world-class museums and historic homes. Visit the extraordinary collections of art at The Clark in Williamstown; Mass MoCA in North Adams; Chesterwood, home of American sculptor Daniel Chester French; Naumkeag a 44-room "cottage" designed by Stanford White; and the beloved Norman Rockwell Museum in Stockbridge. You will also find historic homes, sites, and house museums throughout the region to learn more about our local history, and the people and places that shaped our nation's history, including the Bidwell House in Monterey, the W.E.B. Du Bois National Historic Site in Great Barrington and the Wheeler Homestead, home of the Great Barrington Historical Society & Museum.

Our celebration of art and history extends to the Performing Arts, where the Berkshires is known the world over as a cultural destination. We are home to the Aston Magna Music Festival, Berkshire Bach Society, Berkshire Choral Festival, Berkshire Playwrights Lab, Berkshire Theatre Group, Crescendo, Great Barrington Public Theater, Infinity Music Hall, Guthrie Center, Jacob's Pillow, Mahaiwe Performing Arts Center, and the Berkshire International Film Festival, among other music venues, seasonal festivals, and local performance-based organizations.

We Are a Caring Community: We are a community that cares, shares, and gives back. Berkshire County is home to hundreds of nonprofits, many with the focus on supporting families, adults, babies and youth with community-based services and support, and access to healthcare, food assistance, employment, education, and housing. According to the Nonprofit Center of the Berkshires, an organization focused on providing resources to and promoting the work of the nonprofit community, Berkshire residents donate hundreds of millions of dollars annually to help these organizations fulfill the promise of their mission. We also donate our time, talents, and resources to support programs, raise money, and volunteer as needed to make ours a welcoming and inclusive community.

We Are an Engaged Community: Our events calendar features concerts, performances, fundraisers, lectures, workshops, and festivals year-round that attract locals and visitors alike. We voice our opinions at town meetings, show up to help our neighbors, and stay connected to what's happening in our communities and throughout our region through the many online and print local news and lifestyle publications that cover and chronicle life in the Berkshires.

We Have History: We are a region with a history that dates back to the Native Americans of the Algonquin nation. Primarily a quiet farming community, by the time the railroad arrived in 1842 business was booming, followed by a wave of immigrants for the labor force, and the rich and famous who came to build their vacation "cottages." Tycoons and tailors, laborers and lawyers, factory workers and farmers all called the Southern Berkshires home. Over the years, many former visitors have adopted the Berkshires as their new home. The special synergy that exists here between people and place has inspired remarkable residents for centuries.

We Shop Local: We are a community that shops and supports local business. We even have our own currency, BerkShares! Our local, independent retailers take pride in the quality and uniqueness of their merchandise, and in the experience they provide when you walk through their door. Whether you stroll through the stores in downtown Great Barrington or hop in the car for a scenic drive to one of our surrounding towns, you'll find what you're looking for and more in our funky boutiques, upscale lifestyle clothing stores, children's toy stores, independent book shops, day spas, galleries, beauty salons, and specialty food stores.

We Eat Local: It doesn't get any fresher – or closer to the source – than what's brought to the Berkshire table. Our flourishing food culture extends to advocacy for local farmers, growing fresh foods, strengthening local food systems and community-supported agriculture. Farmers' markets, co-op markets, local non-profits, farmers, and local chefs collaborate to showcase the foods and farms in our region, earning the Southern Berkshires a reputation as a destination for food lovers, and the model when it comes to healthy eating, and farm-to-table dining.

Our farms, community gardens, specialty food stores, and farmers' markets embolden our home cooks, foodies, and local chefs to push the culinary boundaries with what is local and in season. South County's restaurants are known for their continually evolving cuisine, wonderful selections, and gourmet delights created with locally grown and organic meats and produce. Pair any meal with our locally brewed, fermented, and distilled beer, wine, and spirits, and you have a uniquely Berkshire-grown farm-to-table feast!

Whether you prefer casual dining in a pub or diner; ethnic cuisine; grabbing a sandwich, prepared meal, or pizza to go; exploring a complete farm-to-table menu; picnicking in the fields; or enjoying a fine dining experience by candlelight and a fire, our Chamber member restaurants and community farms – with their knowledgeable chefs and farmers – are here to serve you something fresh!

We Are Green: In a recent survey conducted by the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce, 88 percent of its members say they consider their business to be “green” or “eco-friendly.” This includes everything from recycling to using energy efficient lights, eco-friendly cleaning materials, using reusable glass bottles, limiting plastics, and composting.

Drive around our region and you will also see our commitment to reducing our carbon footprint in our many solar fields and local farms. Here, architects, designers, and homeowners work together to design and build new or renovated homes that employ best green building practices.

Watch for Southern Berkshire Chamber-sponsored workshops and green initiatives throughout 2020. Contact us with your ideas!

We Make our Guests Comfortable: The Lodging members of our Chamber offer just what you are looking for, from historic and elegant inns to charming B&Bs, convenient motels, full service amenity hotels, cozy cottages on a lake, in-town boutique hotels, and long-term rentals. Wherever you stay, you are sure to receive a warm welcome and suggestions for a wonderful visit. Keep in mind that during certain times of the year, lodging options may be in short supply so contact your lodging choice and make your reservations as far in advance as possible.

We Are Small Towns With Big City Smarts: While some might consider us rural, our Chamber members provide the experience and professional services available in any big city with the added benefit of the personal relationships that makes living and working in the Berkshires so special. You don’t need to look beyond the Berkshires to get what you need.

Those who are looking to live a healthy, active lifestyle will find holistic practitioners, medical providers, life coaches, physical therapists, yoga instructors, and fitness facilities committed to their success.

Looking to buy a home or finance a business? Our realtors and banks are and they know local. They can help you make informed decisions, and find and finance the ideal property. Looking to get your affairs in order or for legal or financial advice? Our insurance brokers, attorneys, investment managers and accounting professionals have your back.

Many of our business coaches, graphic designers, web developers and social media marketers have made a lifestyle choice to live and work in the Berkshires, showcasing their understanding of what it takes to start, build, and make an independent business. These professionals bring skills and creativity to engagements that get Berkshire-based businesses worldwide recognition.

We Take Care of our Health: Living healthy and thriving – mind, body, and soul – in the Southern Berkshires extends to the number of medical care facilities and professionals, holistic service providers, wellness practitioners, eldercare services, and rehabilitation options that add to the quality of life and care for all Berkshire community residents, at all stages of living.

Anchoring medical care in the Southern Berkshires is Fairview Hospital located in Great Barrington, a member of Berkshire Health Systems. Additional medical and healthcare services are provided to the community through a variety of private organizations, nonprofits, service providers and medical practitioners. And our safety net organizations and nonprofits such as CHP and VIM ensure no one goes without the services they need. Wellness services such as acupuncture, physical therapy, yoga, nutritional guidance, and chiropractic services help residents live a healthy, balanced life.

Both Berkshire South Regional Community Center and The Kilpatrick Athletic Center at Simon’s Rock in Great Barrington offer residents and guests indoor activities for year-round exercise and recreation in state-of-the-art facilities with indoor pools, while yoga and dance studios around town offer a range of classes and options for every interest and skill level.

We Are a Wedding Destination: Think of your dream wedding and no doubt our Chamber members can make it a reality. We offer destination wedding locations for small, intimate dinner parties, over-the-top celebrations, and everything in between at venues as diverse as historic inns, rustic barns, catering halls, museums, restaurants, event spaces, recreational sites, and open fields with hilltop vistas.

From event planners and rental services to caterers, venues, historic churches, lodging establishments, photographers, florists, spa services, and musicians; everything you need for a destination wedding is here in the Southern Berkshires, an enjoyable drive from both the New York and Boston areas.

We Love to Learn: Whether you are a family with young children or an adult looking to pursue an interest, learn a new skill, or indulge your passion for learning new things, the Southern Berkshires is a community that offers and supports a number of public and independent day schools, boarding schools, colleges, and continuing education opportunities to meet the needs of a diverse community that values education at any age. You only have to look at the Chamber's website and Facebook page, and the community calendars published by our media members, to see that education does not end at graduation. Our local museums, historical societies, arts and community organizations, educational institutions, local business professionals, and independent bookstores feed the interests and passions of our community's life-long learners all year long through lectures, guest speakers, seminars and workshops.

We Love to Play: Any season of the year provides an opportunity to enjoy the best of the Southern Berkshires for recreational enthusiasts of all energy levels and interests. Play golf, take a hot air balloon ride, go fishing, hike Monument Mountain or our stretch of the Appalachian Trail, enjoy our many waterfalls, swim or kayak in our lakes and rivers, cross country or downhill ski, ride the longest zipline in the U.S., take a leisurely drive or bike ride through our quaint historic towns and back roads, stroll the grounds of the Norman Rockwell Museum or Chesterwood, tour our historic homes, and enjoy the many special events that celebrate the seasons. The best part about any season in the Berkshires is you can do it all or nothing at all and still love being here!

We Love to Live! Whether you live here year-round, own a second home, or are just visiting, the members of the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce are the businesses and business professionals you need to know to help you make the most of what our region has to offer. ABOUT THE SOUTHERN BERKSHIRE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE

The Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce represents the towns of Alford, Egremont, Great Barrington, Monterey, Mount Washington, New Marlborough, Otis, Sandisfield, and Sheffield in the Southern Berkshires, as well as businesses and professionals in surrounding towns and states in this tri-state region.

Mission Statement:

"To promote business prosperity and a healthy community by providing information, services and advocacy for its members."

We began as the Great Barrington Chamber of Commerce in the early 1900s. In the late 1920s, the state of Massachusetts renamed us the Southern Berkshire Chamber. Since then our merchant-focused organization has continually taken pride in the "Shop Local" movement and promoting the beauty and elegance of our unique region.

Our Chamber, like all Chambers of Commerce, is a not-for-profit advocate for local member businesses. Businesses become members because they take pride in contributing to their community. Joining the Chamber is a smart business move, as member businesses can take advantage of many networking opportunities, as well as experience increased promotion of their business through our website, e-blast, and social media.

The Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce is managed by a volunteer Board of Directors, established to promote civic, commercial, industrial, and agricultural progress within the Southern Berkshires, and to work diligently with community partners and town officials for the establishment of sound business in our area.

In addition, the Chamber operates a hosted Visitor's Center at 362 Main Street in downtown Great Barrington to provide residents, second homeowners, and visitors with advice, directions, and information. Member businesses may post promotional materials inside. Many referrals to member businesses are made each day!

The Chamber, its Board, and over 400 members are actively involved in giving back to the community by supporting such Chamber-sponsored activities as Business Person of the Year, the Annual Holiday Shop, Sip & Stroll, and Ladies' Night Out.

If you would like to learn more about joining the Southern Berkshire Chamber of Commerce, or what we are up to, visit www.southernberkshirechamber.com, drop by the Visitor's Center on Main Street in Great Barrington (see website for Visitor's Center hours), call us at (413) 528-4284, or Follow us on Facebook.com/southern.chamber, Twitter #shopeatpendberkshire, and Instagram @sberkchamber.
